Milan, May 16.

THe Officers are very diligent in making their Recruits, and we are told, that the Count de Caſati, Ambaſſador from the King of Spain with the Swiſſe-Cantons, has Orders ſent him, to make a conſiderable Levy in that Countrey. The Fortifications of Valenza are almoſt finiſhed.

Leghorne, May 18. By a Veſſel arrived from Argiers, we have an account, that thoſe People were in great trouble for the news they had received of three of their Men of War being deſtroyed by the Engliſh Frigats, and for that they had an account, that Canary had been ſtranded on the Coaſt of Barbary, by the ſaid Frigats, which they gave the more credit to, for that they had had no news of him in a long while, and that he was expected home the latter end of the laſt month. The Peace with the States General of the United Provinces was ratified, and had been publiſhed at Argiers.

Genoua, May 22. The 20th inſtant, ſailed this States Convoy for Cadiz, and with it ſeveral Engliſh Merchant Ships. The Delight, Captain Smith, departed yeſterday for Trapani, and three days ſince put into Final four Engliſh Ships from Alicant, from whence they are ſailed for Leghorne. Frequent Councils are held here, and by what is made publick of their Conſultations, it ſeems they are full of fears of the French, and of the ill conſequences, their pretenſion concerning the Firſt Salute may have.

Copenhagen, May 28. Moſt of the Ladies that waited upon the Queen of Sweden, are come back, their places being ſupplyed by Swedes. We cannot yet certainly tell, when our King begins his journey for Holſtein.

Prague, May 25. The Emperor is now at a place called Brandeys, who removes from thence in few days to Pardowits; Count Serini has been again examined, and his affairs ſeem to be in a very ill condition. We are here in great apprehenſions of the Plague, which makes many people leave this place.

Strasburg, May 31. The Baron de Monclar, Lieutenant-General for the French in Alſace, is now at Landaw, where the Army he is to Command, will Rendevous about the middle of the next month, the Troops being to that end on their March; They will not, when together, make above 12 or 14000 Men. The Duke of Deuxponts is ſummoned to appear before the Royal Chamber at Metz.

Cologne, June 4. The Duke of Faliers continues at Aix la Chapelle; it is ſtill doubted, whether he will accept of the Government of the Spaniſh Netherlands. From Ratisbonne we hear, that daily Complaints are made to the Dyet, by the Princes, who ſuffer by the proceedings of the French, though without obtaining any Redreſs; the conſideration of the ſtate of affairs in the Empire, keeping the Dyet from taking the Reſolutions they otherwiſe without doubt would.

Hamburg, June 4. Sir Gabriel Sylvius, the King of Englands Envoye, is gone from Zell to the Duke of Hanouers Court, from whence he will go to that of the Duke of Wolfembuttells. On Sunday laſt, ſeveral Daniſh men of War, which have lain ſome time in the Elbe, ſailed for the Sounds.

Lille, June 2. Four thouſand Horſe are come hither, and we expect more, they obſerve very good order in their March.

Bruſſels, June 4. We are aſſured that the Spaniſh Ordinary which arrived three days ſince, brought Bills of Exchange for a conſiderable ſum of Money, to be made uſe of for the ſervice of this Government. The Marquis de Bourgomanero begins his journey for Holland on Thurſday next, but he will make a very ſhort ſtay there, having Orders to haſten to the Emperors Court, where he is to reſide as Ambaſſador from the Crown of Spain. The Heer Van Heimskirken, Ambaſſador from the States-General of the United Provinces to Spain paſſed ſome days ſince through this City, on his journey to Madrid. The Earl of Arran, Son to Duke Hamilton, who came hither ſome days ſince, went this morning for Flanders.

Hague, June 7. This morning Mr. Sidney had a Conference with the Deputies of the States-General, for Forreign Affairs, who by order of the ſaid States, communicated to him the reſolution they had taken, upon the Memorial preſented to them by the Spaniſh Envoye, concerning the proceedings of the French in Flanders, which was, to ſend Orders (which has been accordingly done) to their Ambaſſadors in France, to endeavour to procure the Spaniards ſatisfaction, in the matters they complain of, and to adviſe continually, in what they do, with Mr. Saville, the King of Englands Miniſter there. The States have likewiſe deputed ſome of their Members to the French Ambaſſador here, to deſire his good Offices in this occaſion: Of all which, Communication has been likewiſe given to the Spaniſh Miniſter here. The States General received yeſterday the Ratification of the late Treaty of Peace, made with Argiers, which its hoped that Government will now obſerve. The Eaſt-India Company having had advice by a French Veſſel arrived at Rochelle, that their Ships which are coming home, were ſafely arrived at the Cape of Good Hope, the Actions of the Company are thereupon riſen. Mr. Sidney, having received the Kings leave to return home for ſome weeks, and a Yacht waiting for him at the Briel, he will embark in a day or two.

Marſeilles, May 28. The French Gallies, Thirty in number, are now at Boccoa, a Port about Seven Leagues to the Weſtward of this place, where they have been theſe Six or Seven days, with fair weather.
